

Explorations in Writing

With Sarah Good

Ready to elevate your writing game? Dive into our year-long elective course designed to sharpen your writing skills and uncover your unique voice.

Join us as we explore various writing techniques to enhance your creativity in personal, academic, and creative writing. Through interactive prompts and exercises, you'll learn the ins and outs of punctuation, spelling, and text organization.

But this isn't just about mastering mechanics – it's about building a supportive writing community. Expect lively discussions, collaborative projects, and plenty of opportunities to share your work and receive feedback.

Assessment will be based on your active participation, completion of writing tasks, and meeting set criteria. So, if you're ready to take your writing to the next level in a supportive environment, this course is for you!
